SYMPHONY & SERIES

Symphony & Art at the Dahmen Barn

After a successful Symphony & Sip at Basalt Cellars in September, our second Symphony & event of the season brings live chamber music to Artisans at the Dahmen Barn. Wander the galleries, enjoy work by regional artists, and sip wine with light refreshments while you listen.

On the program:

Trumpet Duet
David Turnbull & Sam Exline

Flute Duet
Ann Marie Yasinitsky & Rocío Durán Orozco

Woodwind Quintet
Ayça Çetin, flute
Keslie Pharis, oboe
Katsuya Yuasa, clarinet
Javier Rodriguez, bassoon
Vanessa Sielert, saxophone

Saturday, November 14 · 6-8 PM
419 N Pkwy, Uniontown, WA
$50 · A fundraiser for the WIS

MEET THE MAESTRO

Dr. Danh Pham

Music Director & Conductor

Dr. Danh Pham was appointed Music Director and Conductor of the Washington Idaho Symphony in 2018. He is also Music Director of the Coeur d'Alene Symphony Orchestra, Conductor of the WSU Symphony Orchestra, and Director of Bands at Washington State University, as well as a Conn-Selmer Educational Clinician.

His busy schedule takes him around the country and the world, conducting professional, university and conservatory orchestras and wind ensembles. International engagements include the Southbridge Musical Festival (Malaysia), the Seogwipo Philharmonic Wind Orchestra (Korea), the Wuhan Conservatory of Music (China), the ASEAN Festival Orchestra and the Calgary Wind Symphony. Closer to home, he has made recent debuts with the Inland Northwest Opera Company, the Mid-Columbia Symphony Orchestra and the Jackson Symphony Orchestra. Upcoming engagements include a residency at the Musashino Academy of Music in Tokyo.

Dr. Pham was named the 2025 Washington Governor's Arts Commission Educator of the Year, and he was the 2024 WMEA College/University Teacher of the Year and the WIAA Music Teacher of the Year. He was recently inducted into the American Bandmasters Association, where he made his conducting debut with the United States Army Band ("Pershing's Own") in Washington, D.C.
